

FOREIGN INTERESTS ARE INIMICAL TO AMERICAN SHIPPING

Fact is Brought Out at Merchant Marine
Sessions

SENATOR JONES
THROWS BOMB SHELL

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Direct and implied criticism of the attitude of British and other foreign shipping interests toward the newly created American Merchant Marine, permeated today's sessions of the second annual convention of the National Merchant Marine Association.

Senator Russell of Louisiana, president of the association, opened the convention with a plea for "an American Merchant Marine, built, owned and operated by Americans without the faintest suspicion in their make-up of foreign sympathy."

The bomb shell of the day, was set off by Senator Jones of Washington, chairman of the senate commerce committee and author of the merchant marine act which told the convention that the International Mercantile Marine Company, one of the largest American ship operating concerns, was bound by an agreement with the British admiralty to conduct its business in the interest of the British government and British trade.

Reads Agreement.
To support his statement, the Washington senator read to the convention the text of an agreement which he said the International Mercantile Marine had entered into in 1903 for a period of twenty years. The senator also declared that despite this agreement the shipping board has leased forty of its ships to the International Mercantile Marine.

Senator Jones' declaration brought an immediate reply from E. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, who accused the Washington senator of being "unfair" and "biased."

"All of these agreements to which he refers have been before the shipping board and have been approved,"

Admiral Benson, chairman of the shipping board, another speaker on the convention program who heard Senator Jones' address said he would place a copy of the agreement referred to before the board with recommendation that such action be taken as warranted. He added that he only recently learned of the agreement and was not in sympathy with it.

Senator Jones in the course of his address also accused the chamber of commerce of the United States and its magazine the Nation's Business as well as the New York State Chamber of Commerce of "wittingly or unwittingly" aiding British shipping interests in their fight against the American Merchant Marine. He declared these organizations sought with Eastern trunk railway officials to cancel the present equalization of freight rates from Central freight Association territory to gulf and South Atlantic ports.

Accomplishments of this, he added, would turn exporting and importing business from the Gulf and South Atlantic ports to New York, where he asserted the British shipping interests are centered.

ELIMINATE PRACTICE OF HEDGING

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Manipulation in grain could be eliminated through voluntary agreement of exchanges to limit the quantity of the commodity which could be handled, in speculative trades, Herbert Hoover, former federal food administrator, said today, in appearing before the House agricultural committee which is holding hearings on bills to restrict speculation on future exchanges.

Suggests Marketing Board.

Such a board, he added, could assist materially in solving present problems by establishing standard practices and by laying down regulations which would secure for farmers the privilege of storing their grain at country elevators. The farmers would be given warehouse receipts of which they could secure credit.

Assistance in developing co-operative marketing could be given by a board such as he proposed, Mr. Hoover said, suggesting that the bureau of markets might perform administrative functions. Its powers would have to be flexible, he added, and it should work in co-operation with the grain exchanges.

"I do not believe the determination of the precise quantities of methods should be fixed by law," Mr. Hoover declared, "as all such attempts to control economic forces must be tentative and based upon experience gained."

Elimination of the hedging practice on the New York and New Orleans stock exchanges would transfer the practice to the Liverpool market and make it dominant, Mr. Hoover said, adding that the relationship of the Liverpool market to the two American cotton markets needed careful inquiry.

MARRIAGE OF ACTRESS

Litigation Against Field Estate Will Continue—Actress Seeking to Obtain Portion of Estate for Son.

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—The marriage of Peggy Marsh, the young actress, to Albert E. Johnson, nephew of former Mayor Tom Johnson of Cleveland, will not terminate the litigation of the actress against the Marshall Field estate, John P. Wilson, Sr., counsel for the Field estate said today.

The actress has been seeking thru the courts to obtain a portion of the Field estate for her 4-year old, Henry Marsh, son of Henry Field, II. Reports from New York where Miss Marsh and Johnson were married were to the effect that the Field estate had agreed to recognize the validity of her claims and to pay her $50,000 a year and purchase a $100,000 residence for her.

"Miss Marsh's marriage does not in any way affect the attitude of the Field estate against," Mr. Wilson said. "We have not conceded any claim and we have not agreed to anything. We shall file our brief replying to Miss Marsh's allegations during the February term of court."

FARRELL'S STORY

Lieutenant Says He Must Have Been
"Nutt"

NO REMEMBRANCE
OF FIST FIGHT

(By The Associated Press.)
ROCKAWAY, N. Y., Jan. 20.—Recovering sufficiently from the effects of his recent balloon trip to the frozen north, Lieutenant Stephen A. Farrell appeared today before a naval board of inquiry and testified he had scarcely any remembrance of coming to blows with his comrade, Lieutenant Walter Hinton on their return to civilization.

The court previously had heard Lieutenant Louis A. Kloor, Farrell said he was absolutely "dog tired" but camera men continued to bother him.

"I smiled for them, smoked cigarettes for them and did everything they asked to please them, and was all in when they got thru with me," he added.

Farrell says he was "Nutt." He said he accepted the invitation of a Hudson's Bay company man to go to his room and have tea. While in the room, waiting for the man's mother to prepare food, Farrell said the room began filling with men who questioned him.

"The questioning seemed to drive me wild," he said, "I worried me; I seemed to be fast losing my sense of reasoning power. I remember one of them telling me about things published about me in the newspapers. I seemed to get all excited. I was shaking all over the place. When the Hudson's Bay man took me to the company's store and from there to the private car, I seemed to be 'dokey.' I could not sleep, when I laid down, I scarcely remember seeing Hinton and I was going 'nutt'."

At this point Farrell said he did not remember the incident with Lieutenant Hinton.

"Kloor told me I had better apologize to Hinton," he said, "and I did so. Lieutenant Hinton and I had always been good friends before the incident, and have been since."

French Premier Briand Outlines Ministry Program

SAYS FRANCE WILL COMPEL RESPECT

Germany must disarm and pay the reparations due from her.

Peace with Turkey must be made effective, count being taken of new circumstances.

Will Not Intervene in Russia.
France will not intervene in the internal affairs of Russia, but cannot permit the soviet armies to cross the Russian frontiers to attack the allies of France. Promises of economy, renovation of the financial administration and intensified reconstruction of the devastated regions made up the remainder of the program, which, judged by the applause, satisfied the great majority of the members of parliament.

It was the seventh ministerial declaration to be presented by M. Briand as prime minister and was received with quite as much favor as any of the six previous declarations. The approval of the members of the chamber was manifested with the greatest vigor when the premier said the prosperity of Germany, the aggressor, in contrast with the ruin of the victorious people would be a challenge France could not tolerate.

Several interpellations criticized the composition of the ministry and some referred to the antagonism shown by M. Briand to the working class.

"The opposition of the United States to this most important problem concerning communication between the rest of the world and herself is not a legitimate one," says the editorial. "The conduct of the North American government prejudices both South American interests and her own because every international exchange of commerce and ideas progresses proportionately to the facilities with which it is exercised."

"It would be most appropriate if Secretary Colby could carry back some mention of these questions of the day in which the United States wields a preponderant influence."

COAL INDUSTRY WILL OTHERWISE
FACE NATIONALIZATION

SIX DOLLAR COAL
SOLD AT $15.00

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Today's study of the coal industry by the senate committee considering the Calder regulation bill brought from Chairman Thompson of the federal trade commission, the statement that congress must either "restore competition in the coal industry or face nationalization," and from Armand W. Riley, a special assistant to the attorney general, charges that the New York wholesale coal association had put every obstacle in the way of the Lever act proceedings against alleged coal profiteers.

Mr. Riley also presented to the committee sales records of Pennsylvania anthracite mines which he said, showed the collection last fall of $13 and $15 a ton at mine mouths for coal which "fair price circulars" valued at $6.

He denounced to giving further public testimony regarding the New York wholesale coal associations after naming Charles S. Allen its secretary and Gibbs L. Baker, its counsel, as chiefly instrumental in the placing of obstacles "because," he said, "they would impede the work of the grand jury now sitting in New York."

Chairman LaFollette thereupon took the committee into executive session and when it came out after concluding with Mr. Riley, members voted to extend hearings on the Calder bill as indefinite period.

Don't Like Aviation Fashions.
The woman electors do not think much of aviation fashions. "They are all right in the plane," Mrs. Wheeler said, but she wanted her big fur coat off as soon as she stepped on the ground.

Both like to travel by the air route. "It didn't seem queer at all," said Mrs. Smith. "Don't the ground look neat from up here," Mrs. Wheeler asked the pilot before descending.

Mayor Thompson's plan for bringing a 5 cent street car fare to Chicago embodied in a bill to the legislature was approved by the Chicago city council by a vote of 60 to 1. A careful study of these figures will indicate that Mayor Thompson seems to be safely in control of the council.

Arthur Brisbane, commenting on the purpose of several state legislatures to abolish the high heels of women's shoes, says that the reform cannot be accomplished by law. Mr. Brisbane believes that if men would only begin a campaign of laughing at high heels that the needed reform would come at no distant day.

Alas, alas, congressmen have cut out from the agricultural bill the appropriation for free seeds. Hereafter, when you want a nickel's worth of radish seeds you must go to the seedsman's store. If you wanted seeds that would grow, that's what you have always had to do.

If a highwayman stops you, yell with all your might. A Jacksonville man tried the experiment last night when two "bold robbers" accosted him. The weapon proved very effective for the yelling process put the highwaymen to flight and brought assistance. A yell may be a concealed weapon but there is no law against carrying or using it.

In the midst of all the discussion about economic conditions and the way to get to a satisfactory basis, John J. Handley, a Wisconsin organizer for the federation of labor was pointed out a way. Mr. Handley says that the hours of labor should be reduced and the wages increased and that this method followed consistently, will bring the desired results. His theory is that with less hours of labor that the many thousands now unemployed might be absorbed into industry.

Company K of the Illinois militia has been mustered in and Jacksonville is now officially represented in the armed forces of the U. S., for the Illinois National guard is a federalized organization. Those citizens who were present at Armory hall last night fully agreed with the visiting officer in his statement that the company is a fine body of young men. These militiamen are doing a real service to the city, the state and the nation. The very existence of the organization of which they are a part will help maintain order and if the time of stress comes the militiamen will be of distinct benefit to society.

The young men are to be commended for the course they have taken in becoming members of Co. K.

Beginning Right.
Let's all begin this year right, and make a record snowy white. Let's drive our cars twelve miles an hour, and not show off their pep and power by stepping fiercely on the gas and slaying people as we pass. What is the hurry, anyway? Why seed her up? We have all day to get to Punktown-on-the-High, where we expect to spend the night. If we'd cut out the foolish haste the present wild and wanton waste of human life would promptly shrink—it's worth a new year vow, I think. A more important vow this is than swearing off on drugstore fizz, or punk cigars that smell like shoes when you have deftly lit the fuse. Of course the gents who have no cars may waste their vows on hay cigars, but we who push our clanking vans should make some new and drastic plans. We're slaying thousands every year as down the turnpike we career; the dead are lying where we raced, and all because of maudlin haste. What is the hurry, anyhow? It's all un-called for, you'll allow; we have all day in which to reach the famous Bilgewater-by-the-Beach.

TEX RICKARD OFFERS TO TAKE OVER BRADY INTEREST IN BOUT

Would Take a Chance on the Dempsey-Carpentier Bout

CAN'T FIND BOND OF DEMPSEY

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—After a conference here late this afternoon between Tex Rickard and William A. Brady, the former announced that he had offered to take over Brady's interest and bond in the proposed Dempsey-Carpentier bout.

Rickard told the Associated Press that Brady refused to accept the offer until he had consulted with Charles B. Cochran, the third joint promoter in the project, who is at present in London.

According to Rickard the interests of Cachran in this country were in charge of Brady who holds a power of attorney for Cachran, but there was no direct evidence that the latter desired to abandon his share in the match.

Where Is Dempsey's Bond?
This conference was the outstanding feature of another day of controversy over the match for the heavyweight championship of world between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier should or could be cancelled owing to alleged non-fulfillment for contractual clauses. Much of the discussion appeared to hinge on the mystery of the missing bond as a wags facetiously acclaimed Dempsey's surety papers.

According to Rickard, Kearns and others such a bond for $50,000 was made out by the champion and his manager but its whereabouts at this time is shrouded in mystery. Officials of the Central Union Trust company of this city stated emphatically that the bond was not in their possession and called for by the contract entered into on November 5, 1920.

DOUBLE TAXATION IN TWO SCHOOL DISTRICTS

County Clerk Suggests That Property Owners There Pay One Tax Under Protest.

At present there is no way to prevent double taxation in overlapping school districts in a territory between Murrayville and Manchester except by the protest of the property owners. County Clerk G. L. Riggs yesterday called attention to the fact that citizens of high school districts No. 121 and No. 123 have been assessed school taxes in two districts, and the payment of one tax should be under protest.

This will make it possible following a court finding for the collector to refund the tax money so paid.

When Manchester high school district No. 121 and Murrayville district No. 123 were created, there was an over-lapping of some of the territory south of Murrayville. The levy for each district was filed with the county clerk and it was necessary to make the extension although it was known that double taxation would result. The territory thus affected is described as the south half of sections 11 and 12; all of sections 13 and 14, 24 and 25; and the north half of section 23, all included in township 13, range 11. By making protest as suggested by the county clerk, the payment of double taxation can be avoided.

MILITIA COMPANY IS MUSTERED INTO SERVICE

Is Part of Fifth Illinois Regiment—Group of Fine Young Men in Company.

Company K of the 5th regiment, Illinois National Guard, was mustered in with appropriate ceremonies Friday night. Capt. Charles W. Nunan of Urbana was the mustering officer. A goodly number of citizens assembled for the ceremony and found it of an impressive kind. After the young men had been inspected and taken the oath of allegiance to the U. S. and to the state of Illinois, they were declared formally received as a part of the military forces of the U. S.

Capt. Wesley James presented the company for inspection and had reason for pride in the state-ment by Capt. Nunan that he never seen a finer company of young men in the state of Illinois. After mustering in service several hours were spent in dancing, in accordance with the arrangements made by Capt. James. The Dunlap orchestra furnished the music and the occasion became a very pleasant social event for both the young men of the company and others present.

Co. K, as indicated, is a member of the 5th regiment, which is not wholly organized altho some companies have been mustered in and others are in the process of organization. It will include companies at Danville, Decatur, Champaign, Paxton, Bloomington, Quincy and two in Peoria.

Capt. Nunan has been identified with the National Guard for many ears and saw service in the Spanish-American war. The mustering in officer fully explained to the men their obligation in entering the service and congratulated them upon the showing made. Capt. James expressed appreciation for the cooperation of citizens and said it was the intention to make the company a real credit to Jacksonville. The company roster shows the following names and others enlistments are expected:

James A. Barcott, W. E. Benson, Ernest Bray, N. L. Boston, George M. Burrus, Avery Christison, Harold Cockin, J. P. Correa, George W. Cockin, Lloyd H. Culley, L. R. Million Dollar Co. Will Market Tanlac Throughout World

Business Has Grown from Small Beginning Six Years Ago Until Now It is One of the Largest in the World With Big Foreign Demand.

By HARRISON VAUGHN

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 20.—An announcement has just been made here of the organization of the International Proprietaries, Inc., to take over the business heretofore conducted by G. F. Willis, International Distributor of Tanlac, and the Willis-McDuffie Company, Eastern Distributors, of this city. The new Company has a paid-in capital of One Million Dollars and is one of the largest proprietary medicine concerns in the world. The business of the corporation will be conducted by the present management, which owns the entire capital stock. It is understood that no part of the stock will be offered to the public.

The officers of the company are G. F. Willis, President; P. C. McDuffie, Vice President; M. A. Crumley, Treasurer; J. C. Goodson, Secretary. Mr. Willis is a prominent Atlanta business man and is a well-known figure in the drug and advertising field in both the United States and Canada. Under the direction of Mr. Willis, the founder of the business, it has attained its present position in the very front rank of the country's proprietary medicine industries.

Mr. McDuffie, who has been a big factor with Mr. Willis in building up the business in the past five years, is a leading Atlanta citizen and business man and is widely known to the drug trade throughout the country.

The new company, which is the logical outcome of the rapid growth and expansion of the business, will market a number of internationally advertised and internationally sold proprietary and pharmaceutical products, including Tonics, Aspirin Tablets, Cold Specifics, Laxative Tablets, etc. SALE UNPRECEDENTED.

Tanlac, their principal product, is probably the most extensively advertised and the most largely sold proprietary medicine of its kind in the world, approximately 20,000,000 bottles having been sold since its introduction six years ago. An instance of the rapid growth and development of the business with Atlanta as principal headquarters is the statement that its products are now advertised in more than seven thousand newspapers in the United States and Canada, and that the advertising appropriation for this year will be in excess of One Million Dollars. The success and permanency of the business is assured from the fact that it has shown a rapid and substantial increase each year since its organization, and the further fact that the business for the year just past shows an increase of approximately 80 per cent over the preceding year.

BIG FOREIGN DEMAND.

To supply the demand for Tanlac it has been necessary to erect two great modern Laboratories—one at Dayton, Ohio, and the other at Walkerville, Canada. These Laboratories represent the last word in modern construction and laboratory equipment. The two plants have a combined floor space of approximately 70,000 square feet, with a combined daily capacity of 60,000 bottles. Tanlac, which is a medicine of recognized therapeutic value and unquestioned merit, is now sold in practically every city, town and hamlet in the United States and Canada. In fact, it is a household word throughout America.

The new Company will not only undertake the further expansion of the business in foreign countries, where there is a steadily increasing demand, but contemplates acquiring at an early date additional manufacturing facilities in this country and Canada. The Company is doing an annual business of from $5,000,000 to $6,000,000, with an annual pay-roll of approximately $250,000. The executives and sales offices occupy more than an entire floor of the Fourth National Bank Building in this city.

GENERAL STRICKLAND SAYS MARTIAL LAW IN IRELAND IS A SUCCESS

Gives Out First Formal Interview Thursday

NOT WARRING ON WOMEN

(By The Associated Press)
CORK, Jan. 20.—In the first formal interview given to the press since he came to Ireland, Major General Strickland, in command of the troops, told The Associated Press today that martial law was proving a success. He discussed the reprisals and his letter to the acting lord mayor explaining that he expected aid from the citizens in the shape of a vigilance committee of some kind to supply information to the military. He did not allude to his report on the burning of Cork.

Among the interesting statements made by General Strickland was one that women carried weapons concealed in their skirts to the ambushing forces. "The definite thing we are accomplishing in the breaking of the organization of the Republican army," he said, "until martial law was declared that organization was remarkably efficient, its foundations were almost as well organized as those of the British army."

General Strickland spoke bitterly of the part he alleged women were taking as arms bearers. "Not Making War on Women" "The military are not making war on women or interfering with them in any way," he said, "so the difficulty of getting the arms in the possession of women may be imagined."

Concerning the suggestion that the people of Cork form a vigilance committee the general remarked:

"Sixteen months ago when I first came to Ireland, County Clare was a hotbed of Republican activities."

"I went there and suggested to the leading people the formation of such an organization. I was met with the reply that the forces of intimidation were too strong for the plan to succeed. Under martial law I think the situation is different and there is some chance for well disposed citizens to give aid."

General Strickland condemned indiscriminate reprisals but held that official reprisals not only were justified but necessary. "But," he added, "I don't like to hear them called reprisals. I call them punishment."

CANADA WANTS THE CHAMPIONSHIP FIGHT

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 20.—It was reiterated this morning by sportsmen from Ottawa and Hull just across the river, that the offer to hold the Dempsey-Carpentier heavyweight championship bout at Hull next summer still holds good and that it was hoped that Tex Rickard will come to Canada to discuss the proposition along with the other plans submitted from Canada.

Cadillac, Mich.—Nelson Nolf, living near Cadillac, brought several pounds of stones with him when he returned from northern Russia, where he served with the American military force. Recently, the stones were found to be almost pure platinum and experts say Nolf will receive about $18,000 for them.

Nolf used the stones for door weights. Each time a door banged against one of them, several dollars worth of platinum was knocked off.

The ore was found by soldiers from northern Michigan on the Divna river, about 35 miles from Archangel.

BIG SUM RAISED FOR PERSONAL EXPENSES

Voucher Found for $260,000 by Auditors—Officer Said to Have Been Charles M. Schwab.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—A voucher for $260,000 "for personal expenses of an officer of the Bethlehem Shipbuilding corporation" was found in an audit of the main office of that company, Col. E. H. Abadie today informed the Walsh congressional committee investigating the shipping board. He identified this "officer" as Charles M. Schwab, who was then director general of the emergency fleet corporation. The voucher was made for the month of October, 1918.

"One hundred thousand dollars of this amount," he testified, "was arbitrarily charged to ship construction."

It was learned prior to adjournment today that Mr. Schwab had been asked to appear before the committee to testify.

The voucher Colonel Abadie added, was not seen by him, nor was its alleged amount or "purpose" verified.

He said it was reported to him by Mr. Morse, of the firm of Perley Morse and Company, expert accountants, employed by him as comptroller of the shipping board to make an independent audit of shipbuilding companies. He also testified from what he knew of Mr. Schwab he would be the first man to condemn any injustice by his corporation toward the government. He added that while the voucher in question was not accompanied by supporting papers he thought it could be explained.

The subject was brought up by Col. Abadie in explaining certain matters connected with his resignation from the board involved in which was a dispute with Chairman Payne of the employ of the auditing firm to make an audit of American shipyards.

"It is the first time in my life I ever left a position without the feeling that I was leaving on friendly terms with my superiors. I think Admiral Benson has done me an injustice, and owes me an apology," he said.

FIRST OFFICIAL DESTRUCTION OF HOUSES IN CORK

Houses of Sinn Fein Sympathizers are Destroyed

OTHER BUILDINGS ARE SHATTERED

CORK, Jan. 20.—Two houses were destroyed by mill forces this afternoon in the first official destruction for attacks on forces in Cork since martial law was enforced. Two members of the Irish constabulary were attacked last Saturday at the house wrecked today.

The houses selected for reprisal are said to have been occupied by well known Sinn Fein sympathizers who were given a warning to clear out. They were permitted to remove their furniture and then military engineers prepared for the demolition of the buildings. Meanwhile, officers with drawn revolvers ordered the large crowd that had gathered to disperse saying that otherwise it would be fired on.

At 1:40 o'clock this afternoon three loud explosions followed at intervals of several minutes caused consternation throughout the city. Up to 3 o'clock this afternoon no fires had broken out and no visible damage had been done to houses outside the zone surrounded by military. The raid continued until 5 o'clock in the evening, when the troops were withdrawn.

It was then found that two three story houses had been demolished only the walls remaining standing and that a provision shop adjacent had almost been wrecked by the force of the explosions. Scores of windows in other buildings were shattered.

SMALL ADVANCE IN TEACHERS' SALARIES

Survey of National Educational Situation Shows Only Small
Average Increase in Teachers' Pay Throughout Country.

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO.—With an increase of $600 per year to the average teacher Baltimore is shown to lead the list of American cities in amount of salary advances to be granted to public school workers during the past year, according to a survey of the national educational situation just completed by the Better Schools Service, a bureau of the American Federation of Teachers.

This bureau has been compiling statistics and reports here since the teacher shortage became acute. Philadelphia is shown to bring up the rear of all cities, its increase being only from $50 to $120 per year.

The average increase for cities of more than 100,000 population is listed at $365 per year, for cities of between 50,000 and 100,000 three hundred and thirty-two dollars in cities of 25,000 to 50,000, three hundred and seventy-one dollars.

"Reports from all over the country show that the general advance in salaries still leaves teachers more inadequately paid than previous to 1914," said William T. McCoy, director of the survey in making the first findings public.

"Teachers are still at the bottom of skilled workers in the wage scale," he added. "The measures of relief have been palliative only. They may have checked momentarily the disintegration in the public school system of this country but they have not arrested it. All reports show that there must be fundamental changes in the policy of financing education before schools are safe from current deterioration. Normal schools enrollment over the nation is the barometer of the educational system. This barometer is now very low. Even the Baltimore increase is reported by Maryland educators to have been inadequate.

Among the larger American cities Louisville and Paterson, (N. J.) rank next to Baltimore with $500 each as the average annual increase, Chicago, Toledo, San Francisco and Kansas City take next place with $450 each. St. Louis, Oakland, Tacoma gave $420 apiece with Spokane close behind with $400. Boston, Los Angeles and Houston awarded a raise of $350 with Atlanta and Minneapolis $300 each. Indianapolis, Cleveland and Des Moines gave $200.

Of cities between 50,000 and 100,000 Terre Haute, Ind., leads with an average teacher advance of $450. Portland, Me., gave $400 and Gary, Ind., $350. In the third group cities between 25,000 and 50,000 Montclair, N. J., tops the list with $500. Newton, Mass., being next with $450.

turbances. Similar reports were made by the state policemen who have taken the place of all federal soldiers formerly stationed outside of Williamson.

HOLDUP MEN WORK THURSDAY EVENING

Prof. Francis I. Moats Held up by Two Men in West Morgan Street About 7:30 O'clock—Two Suspects Are Held.

Prof. Francis I. Moats of 1961 Grove street, was the victim of two holdup men in west Morgan street about 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening. Mr. Moats struggled with the men and shouted for help and they were frightened away before they obtained anything.

The attempted robbery occurred near the intersection of west Morgan and south Fayette streets. Mr. Moats had taken dinner at the Peacock inn and when he left the Inn walked west in West Morgan street.

At the Armstrong Drug store corner he noticed two colored men. When he reached the old Y. M. C. A. he suspected they were following him but continued on his way. When he reached the north side of the Academy hall the men rushed in.

One of them seized him from behind, and pinioned his arms. The other man started to search his pockets. Mr. Moats fought with the men and shouted for help. His cries attracted a number of residents in the vicinity and the men were frightened away. In the fight with the men Mr. Moats lost his glasses and had the knee of his trousers torn when he was thrown to the ground. He later recovered his glasses.

A call was immediately sent in to the police station, and in a few minutes Chief Kiloran, Night Captain Elliott and Patrolman Williams were on the scene. They were given an accurate description of the two men by Mr. Moats who said they were colored.

The officers began a search and arrested Fred Shannon and Carlton Wheeler. Both men are being held at the station and the police believe they have the right parties.

HOSPITAL AID SOCIETY'S ANNUAL REPORT.

Herewith is presented the annual report of the Passavant Hospital Aid Society for 1920:

The regular meetings have all been held, besides many called meetings, and much important and earnest work has been done by the society throughout the year.

The membership has increased greatly—new names are constantly being enrolled and the attendance all thru the year has been good.

In the early months of the year, the Aid society endeavored to establish branch aids or auxiliaries in all the nearby towns, and neighborhoods, thus hoping to create a greater interest in, and make friends for the hospital. The weather and road conditions made it difficult to carry out intended plans, but in several neighborhoods these efforts resulted in substantial aid for the hospital.

On May 8, the new addition of 20 rooms and the sun parlors—completely equipped and beautifully furnished, were thrown open to the public for inspection. A reception was held and thru the afternoon and evening hours a great many visitors were received, who expressed much pleasure in seeing this splendid addition to the hospital.

In October the campaign drive for funds for the hospital was on, and the Passavant hospital Aid society pledged $200 toward the general fund. The society hopes to pay this in full before the close of the spring meetings.

On Dec. 15 the aid society held a bazaar and sale, for benefit of Passavant hospital, at the home of Mrs. W. L. Alexander on West State street. The sum of $65 was realized from this sale.

The Aid societies of the churches have done their usual faithful, consistent work of upholding and helping the hospital in every way, afternoons of sewing, contributions of money and collections of fruit and vegetables were given, besides the complete furnishing of a room in the new addition, which most of the churches have so willingly done.

Many individual gifts and kindnesses have been given, which it will be impossible to mention, but every gift and every expression of sympathy was appreciated.

The Point church and Northminster church gave largely toward equipment of diet kitchen, the Concord Christian church and First Baptist church of the city gave gifts of splendid bedding; the Fine Point club put in many afternoons of sewing; the Pleasant Hour club gave a beautiful quilt; the South Side Circle and Mound Woman's club contributed toward the laundry fund, and the hospital is especially grateful to Mrs. Walter Ayers and her co-workers for their thoughtful kindness in coming to the hospital and making the surgical dressings, which were so badly needed. These included the Mayo, the Tonsil, and the supplementary sponges and 4,241 of these dressings were made by these ladies to Oct. 1.

The Hospital Aid society at the regular meetings have made and marked 1,427 articles of sewing besides work done at called meetings of which no record was kept.

Below is a record of the work of the church aid societies and their donations:

UNIVERSITY STUDENT DRUGGED AND ROBBED

Is Found in Alley One Block From Home—Said Woman Asked Her to Smell Perfume and That Was the Last She Knew.

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Ruth O'Shea an 18 year old university student who was found unconscious in an alley a block from her home in the North Side residential quarter, recovered consciousness tonight and told the police she had been drugged by a woman she met while riding home on a bus. She said the woman held a handkerchief to her face under the pretense that it contained a rare perfume.

Miss O'Shea's head was badly cut when she was found at 10 o'clock last night and her purse, which she said had contained $50, held only a few nickels and dimes. Miss O'Shea said she had been to a hospital to visit a friend and that on the way home she conversed with a well dressed woman who occupied the same seat with her on the bus. The woman turned the conversation to perfumes as they got off said Miss O'Shea and then asked her to smell a rare perfume on her handkerchief.

"She held the handkerchief to my face," Miss O'Shea told the police, "and that is all I remember."

Miss O'Shea was unconscious for about sixteen hours. Physicians said the cut on her head apparently had been made by a fall.

PASSAVANT YEAR PASSES IN REVIEW

Enlarged Work Done During Period Shown in Reports—Officers Elected for Coming Year.

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of Passavant Memorial hospital association was held Thursday night with H. J. Rodgers, vice president, presiding in the absence of A. A. Curry, president, who is now in Texas. The reports of the president, the secretary, Thomas Harber, and the treasurer, F. E. Farrell, the ladies' aid society, the medical staff, general superintendent and of the training school were read and approved. Several new members of the board from the county were in attendance.

The election of officers resulted in the choice of:
President—A. A. Curry.
Vice-president—H. J. Rodgers.
Secretary—J. G. Ames.
Treasurer—Felix E. Farrell.
Trustees from medical staff—Dr. H. C. Woltman.
Dean training school—Dr. H. C. Woltman.

The annual report of Mrs. Kate Hicks Holliger as treasurer of the Hospital Aid society, showed total collections for the year of $308.28. This includes donations from the churches and thru the diet kitchen. The detailed facts set forth by this secretary of the Aid Society are given elsewhere in this paper. The report of Felix E. Farrell, treasurer, showed balance in the general fund Jan. 1, of $1,640.25; trust account, $7,846.03; invested funds $15,200; bequests from June 7, 1907, to date, $18,851.03.

Increased Number of Patients. The report of Miss Ida Vennor, superintendent, showed that 172 number of patients treated during the year was 1,115; the number of nursing days was 15,023, a daily average of 41, showing an increase over 1919 of 3,113 nursing days and a daily average of 9 patients. The heaviest month was in March with the daily average of 58 patients. The lightest month was August, with a daily average of 34 patients. The total amount of work done at the hospital amounted to $54,902.79; total income, $52,314.21, and total expenses, $49,781.37. The average cost per patient day was $3.31.

Miss Vennor gave facts about the opening of the new wing details of the diet kitchen, referred to various repairs and replacements. Other facts were set forth in a readable way to show the work done thru the hospital. Miss Vennor also presented a report as superintendent of the training school, which has had a successful year, altho the number of applications for admission received was small because of the general shortage of nurses.

Work of the Year. Jacksonville, Ill., Jan. 20, 1921. To The Trustees of Passavant Hospital in Annual Meeting: In the absence of Pres. A. A. Curry, I will make a report as best I can for the year. One year ago the affairs of the hospital seemed to be infected with unrest and uncertainty prevalent to the time.

Mr. A. A. Curry was elected president for the first time and other officers were elected and re-elected as your executive committee. These immediately began operations on the difficulties which were present.

One of the worst difficulties was the lack of sufficient income on current receipts to meet the ever-increasing cost of supplies and employees. In March, 1920, your executive committee determined to raise the price of room and other services sufficiently to meet the prospective costs. This has been very satisfactory, so that receipts and disbursements are breaking about even.

Resigning from service was very frequent, which apparently prevented progress. The first and most difficult to overcome was the resignation of Miss Good as superintendent, on account of overwork and nervous breakdown. Your executive committee was most fortunate in securing Miss Ida Vennor to return to the hospital after two years of rest and recuperation, to be general superintendent. We all know and appreciate Miss Vennor as a lady of great executive ability and with the power to organize the hospital the working force therein to the best advantage. Miss Vennor, with the hearty support and co-operation of the executive committee and the hospital aid committee has brought order out of our seeming distress and difficulties, until today at the beginning of the new year, I am convinced that Passavant hospital has never been in a more promising condition than now.

New Equipment. During the past year the new wing to the hospital has been completed, with screens, electric fixtures, telephone, light signal system and the heating plant and hot water system completed and connected throughout and in operation. All the new rooms have been equipped with new furniture, etc., by the donors. The special building committee on the new wing and power house reported all bills paid with a small balance on hand of about $65, same being transferred to the general hospital fund. The committee's report was accepted and the committee discharged with thanks.

Under the efficient management of Harry Brown as chairman, the campaign for funds to build and equip the laundry, the sterilizing equipment, and operating rooms, with other necessary improvements, was very successful.

New Battle Ship Linolium in on hand to relay the halls of the entire first floor of the hospital. Estimates and specifications for the laundry equipment and building, the sterilizing equipment and operating rooms have been made and are being received, so that work will soon begin on the installation of them.

Mrs. A. W. Brown, with her committee on new laundry rendered efficient service in having originated and started a substantial fund for the same and keeping everlastingly at it.

The enlargement of the trustee members to all the Protestant churches of the county was very acceptable and has been the means of extending the usefulness of the hospital and acquiring new and interested friends.

We need to complete the organization of the present amount to be included in each church denomination's annual budget, for an emergency fund for the hospital.

The Passavant hospital should be mentioned in the pastor's prayer each morning service, at least to keep the hospital before the people.

For Contagious Diseases. A contagious ward or building detached from the hospital is the next primary need of Passavant hospital. Arrangements should be adopted looking forward to the funds necessary and the construction of the same.

Finally, I wish to say that we, as trustees and supporters of the Passavant hospital, do not understand nor can we comprehend the problems, cares and responsibilities that come to the general superintendent, officers and nurses each day, that are nerve racking and must be decided at once. The patient and relatives come into the hospital in grief, fear and trembling. This must be met with tact and a disposition to soothe their fears, it being the purpose of the hospital to administer relief and comfort to the distressed.

Ever remembering that the hospital staff is serving us when we are most and are helpless, therefore, as kind remembrance, a word of appreciation or encouragement is greatly appreciated by the individual and staff.

Be a booster.
H. J. RODGERS,
Vice President.

CHICAGO MAY HAVE
HOME FOR ACTRESSES
By Associated Press.

Chicago.—Chicago may have a home for actresses similar to that in Philadelphia, where stage folk can obtain room and board at a reasonable price. A movement to this end has been started in Chicago among the theatrical people. It was set on foot by a letter addressed to Mrs. John T. Murray (Vivian Oakland) by Maxine Elliott. A number of Chicagoans already have expressed willingness to support the project.

Miss Elliott wrote Mrs. Murray that she asked her to inaugurate this movement in Chicago because she was a mother and could more readily appreciate the difficulties of girls of the stage facing privations in a big city.

"A home of this kind," said Mrs. Elliott, "would furnish a real atmosphere and keep the girls away from the objectionable conditions which they so often face in hotels."

Thousands of girls come here each year who not only would benefit by a haven of this kind, but are in absolute need of just such a place. Mrs. Murray observed, "At the present time even the well paid actress must pay practically all she earns in order to live," she said. "A club or home of this kind would be self-supporting after its establishment."

ILLINOIS PLAYS LINCOLN TONIGHT

Will Meet Strong Five at David Prince Gymnasium—Game Will be Called at 7:30 O'clock.

Illinois college will meet the strong Lincoln college five at David Prince gymnasium tonight. Coach Harmon's squad has been working hard in preparation for the game and the men have shown great improvement in their work. During the past week Knoepfel has been coming fast at forward and it is probable he will be given an opportunity to show his wares in the game. He was a member of the Bluffs team last year which was runnerup in the district tournament here.

While Harmon is undecided as his exact line-up to open the game, it is probable he will start Farrell and Antrobus at forwards, Mellon at center, and Cully and Jones at guard. As has been said, Knoepfel may be given a chance and no doubt the coach will put several other players in the game during its progress.

Great difficulty has been experienced in securing officials this year. Coach Harmon telegraphed to Bloomington yesterday and while there are fifteen officials who work in college conference games in that city every one of them had an engagement for this evening.

He was in communication with Peoria last night in an endeavor to secure Walter Martin. If Martin can't come, Harmon told him to send some one who is probable an official will be here in time for the game tonight.

Play will start at 7:30 o'clock in order to allow Lincoln to catch the 9 o'clock train for Springfield. They will then be able to get back to Lincoln this evening.

MRS. ONEAL DIES IN FLORIDA

Wife of Former Pastor of Grace Church Had Been Ill Many Years.

A number of Jacksonville people have recently learned of the death of Mrs. H. H. O'Neal which occurred at Lakeland, Fla., following an illness of nearly four years. Mrs. O'Neal was resident in Jacksonville for a period of years while her husband, Dr. H. H. O'Neal, was pastor of Grace M. E. church.

The deceased is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. C. A. Cole of Lakeland, and one son, Ernest Ray O'Neal of Minneapolis.

SPORT AND FOOD SUPPLY FROM THE SAME SOURCE

Washington.—Denison, Texas, has set an example to other municipalities by furnishing to its citizens sport and a valuable food supply and to itself a source of revenue.

Small lots of black bass and sunfish were supplied to Denison by the government in 1915, 1917 and 1919. These were deposited in Denison's two sources of water supply and they multiplied.

Thereupon Denison's city fathers proceeded to derive some revenue. Annual angling permits were issued at $3 each and daily permits at 50 cents each.

In the last fiscal year $1,099 was gathered in from the angling permits, 67 annual and 1,286 daily permits being issued.

NO CLUE TO IDENTITY OF AUTOMOBILE DRIVER

Police Worked Most of Night Trying to Get Information—Reward of $100 Offered for Apprehension.

No clue has as yet been obtained as to the identity of the driver of the car which struck and killed Mrs. Anna M. Boddy in West State street Wednesday evening.

Chief of Police Kiloran and members of the police force worked most of Wednesday night endeavoring to get information as to the name of the driver of the car. The search continued throughout Thursday but Chief Kiloran said nothing definite had been obtained.

Shortly after the accident broken glass at the scene of the tragedy led to the belief that one of the headlight glasses of the car had been broken. However, Mr. Kiloran does not believe this is true. Clarence York drove up to the scene in a buggy and left it standing on the car track. The vehicle was struck by a street car and the glass probably was from the car.

A reward of $100 has been offered for the apprehension of the driver. In the meantime the officers will continue working in the hope of getting some definite information.

1920 INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

Contributions to religious, charitable, scientific, or educational organizations constitute a considerable item in the returns of many taxpayers. Such contributions made within the taxable year 1920, if limited to a certain class of organizations, may be deducted by an individual to an amount not in excess of 15 per cent of his net income as computed without the benefit of this deduction.

Deductions for contributions are not allowed for corporations or partnerships. The members of a partnership or a personal service corporation may take credit in their individual returns for their proportion of such gifts, provided the pro rata part when added to the individual contribution does not exceed 15 per cent of the taxpayer's net income.

The law provides that contributions in order to be deductible shall be limited to corporations and associations organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, or educational work, and to societies for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder; also to the special fund authorized by the vocational rehabilitation act. For example, a contribution to a hospital, the net earnings of which inure to private stockholders, would not be an allowable deduction. Gifts made directly to individuals are not deductible, but if made to an organization of the kind described may be deducted, even though the organization distributes its funds among individual beneficiaries.

Treasury regulations specifically prohibit the deduction of contributions to funds for the payment of campaign expenses.

Donations made by corporations to charitable institutions, hospitals, or educational institutions which legitimately represent a consideration for a benefit flowing directly to the corporation as an incident of its business are allowable deductions as ordinary and necessary expenses. For example, a corporation may deduct donations made to a charitable institution, hospital, or educational institution conducted directly or indirectly for the benefit of its employees or their dependents, or a street railway corporation may deduct a sum of money donated to an organization holding a convention in the city in which it operates with reasonable expectation that the holding of such convention will augment its income. Amounts expended for lobbying purposes, the promotion or defeat of legislation, the exploitation of propaganda, including advertising, are not deductible from gross income.

Promises to make contributions in the future should not be considered by the taxpayer in making his return. The allowance is provided only for contributions actually made.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS

The tax books are now in the collectors office and taxes extended stand as judgments against all parties mentioned therein.

Persons paying on personal property only should pay the tax promptly and avoid trouble and expense in collection. The judgment reads as follows: "In case any person named in said books shall neglect or refuse to pay their personal tax, you shall levy the same by distress, and sale of goods and chattels of such person." Parties paying on real estate should bring their old tax receipts to save time and avoid mistakes. If paying thru the banks, leave your old receipts with your bank as soon as possible.

BETHEL CHURCH

MEMBERS IN FINE MEETING Last Tuesday evening at Bethel A. M. E. church, was the scene of a very enthusiastic gathering. Madam M. G. Page of St. Louis was there in interest of the International Mercantile Co. Those who were out to hear her not only received intelligence along a financial line from Madam Page, but received an unusual treat in the way of a program from Madam Webster, who accompanied her.

Madam Webster is a dramatic reader full of spirit and pathos. She is an artist of no mean ability. Her interpretation of the "Maniac" and "Charles" Opinion of the New Baby" by Robert Burns held her audience spell-bound.

Madam Page gave this program as a side issue and when the interest of her audience had reached a climax, she presented her cause, which was indeed a wonderful one. She is a woman of power and influence and has a personality and an originality all of her own. By making her work a part of her, and being so thoroughly interested herself, she was able to enthrall those who were interested into her hearers. She asked them to take out stock in a co-operative grocery store, and they did. Those who took out shares are as follows:

Rev. Hackley, 2 shares; John Easley, 2 shares; Miss Susie Lynch, 10 shares; Mrs. Josephine Allen, 1; Willis Allen, 2; Mrs. Yates, 1; Mr. Yates, 1; Wilbur Reed, 2; Wm. W. A. Johnson, 1; Mrs. Fannie Tate, 1; Mrs. Hattie Robinson, 1; Mr. Tom Robinson, 1; Rev. J. W. Kirk, 1; Mrs. Wilburn, 1.

The shares were sold $10 per share. The election of officers followed which resulted as follows:

Bank Spirit

The foundation upon which "Bank Spirit" must be built, if it is to be a sound and lasting thing, is the foundation of the fair deal. It is an old principle, but one which must be newly applied and constantly woven into the fabric of an organization.

This Bank so genuinely believes in the truth of this principle, and has in the past made so great an effort to make it a part of its every day life, that it believes even the caller upon casual matters cannot but notice in every department, that spirit of readiness, helpfulness and fairness, which makes true "Bank Spirit."

Matters of great importance may take longer study, require more consideration than the routine business detail, but it is the application of "Bank Spirit" to routine affairs which largely indicates what may be expected in problems of considerable moment.

DAIRY FILMS SHOWN TO LOCAL PEOPLE

State Film "Foster Mother of World" Viewed by Audience Here Thursday Afternoon.

A small crowd gathered in the headquarters of the Farm Bureau this afternoon to see the picture, "The Foster Mother of the World," brought here in the interest of the dairy industry of Morgan county. A number of dairy experts of state and national reputations addressed the crowd, and the entire program was interesting and instructive.

Roy Potter presided at the meeting in the absence of County Agent Kendall and introduced S. J. Stanard, superintendent of the dairy division of the state department of agriculture. Mr. Stanard told of the showing of the film throughout most of the state during the past year. He said:

"During the past twelve months, we have shown this film to about thirty thousand people, and I have had the privilege of talking to that many. We have had an average attendance at our meetings of 325, and much interest in the development of better dairying has been created all over the state.

"In the past year we have sent to Illinois farmers about 200,000 bulletins dealing with the dairy industry.

Mr. Stanard then introduced Prof. R. E. Caldwell of Waukegan, who addressed the meeting on the subject of feeding the dairy cow. Before beginning the discussion of the subject proper, he told how the dairy cow happened to come to Illinois. He said in part:

"When New England was first settled, the farmers grew grains until they depleted the soil. It was then necessary to go farther west to find more soil on which to grow grain satisfactorily. It did not take long to deplete the thin soil of New England. The eastern farmers then took to raising hogs, beef and mutton, and thus put some of the animal fertilizer back on the soil, and built it up to some extent. However, as the eastern cities grew, and the population became more dense, it was necessary to find some animal that would produce even more food than steers, hogs and sheep. Then came the dairy cow, and today the dairy industry is a live and growing business throughout New England.

"In Illinois it has taken longer for the grain farmer to deplete the soil, but he is now having to quit. He has gone to western Kansas, Oklahoma and the northwest, where he is robbing the soil as fast as he can. Stock raising is coming into its own in this section of the country, but as the cities grow, we must find something of more food value in order to feed the people.

"It is now time to promote the dairy industry in Illinois, for it has been found that the dairy cow produces more food than any other food producing animal or grain so far discovered. For every 100 pounds of food consumed by the dairy cow, she gives back to the producer 18 pounds in milk and butter. For the same amount of food consumed by a steer, three pounds are returned to the producer."

PUBLIC SCHOOL NOTES

The second semester of the Jacksonville public schools Jan. 24, 1921.

All children entering who are not in school but who are either six years of age or will be six years of age before March 1st may enter school at this time. Those that enter must enter at once so that appropriate classes can be formed.

Semester tests have been given during the last three days of the present week as usual and adjustments for the second semester will be made during the first day or two of next week. If there are students who have been out of school, but are due in school, or who are to re-enter at this time, they should do so Monday or Tuesday of next week.

The school law provides that all children between the ages of 6 and 16 who are not receiving regular school instruction elsewhere must attend the public schools for the entire time that the schools are in session. The only exception to this is where children under 14 years of age are employed at full time service working on a permit issued according to the regulations of the law.

Constant nurse inspection is being carried on in the schools in order to safeguard against the spread of disease. Two nurses inspect the school population each day and see that each case is given proper attention. The class rooms, halls, basements, etc., are thoroly cared for by scrubbing and spraying. Every effort is made to keep the building healthful and sanitary.

The contractors for the new high school building are making an effort to turn over the manual training quarters early in the next semester. Ever since the high school fire the manual training in the high school has been seriously handicapped due to lack of space. It is hoped that the new quarters may be had within the next few weeks.

WOMEN ARE STILL HOLDING POSITIONS
Only Part Have Lost Jobs Since
End of War—Proved Most Efficient in Many Lines of Work.
CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—Only part of the women engaged in industry during the war period have lost their places through the return of men from the war and the lack of employment, Miss Mary Anderson, director of the women's bureau of the United States Department of Labor, reports.
"Statements to the bureau from hundreds of industry leaders who employed only women during the war show they have retained their female help, while others state they have replaced their women with male workers," Miss Anderson said.

"Because of the volume of unemployment throughout the country today no accurate figures as to the number of women employed in various lines at present as compared with the war period are obtainable.
"I believe that when figures of the 1920 census are available, they will show more than 12,000-000 women in gainful occupation.
The census, however, will not set forth the present situation, because unemployment has increased by leaps and bounds since it was taken.
"Women won the admiration of employers during the war period by their ability to fill in on men's jobs. Take for instance the operators. Thousands of women became very efficient and still retain their places beside men operators. The war gave American women a new opportunity in industry and they grasped it."

MANY CORPORATIONS FORMED IN ILLINOIS
Springfield, Ill.—The year 1920 was a splendid year for the state corporation department in the office of the secretary of state. Incorporation was made of 4,874 domestic concerns and licenses were issued to 529 foreign corporations. In the previous year 4-538 domestic corporations were organized and 429 foreign corporations licensed.
Fees collected by the department ran greatly in excess of any preceding year, department attaches report. This, it is said, is due to the fact that franchise features of the general corporation act passed by the last legislature became operative March 1, 1920.
During 1919 revenue from new corporations amounted to $697-166.32 compared to $3,645,610.90 for the year just ended.
According to Alvin C. Margrave superintendent of the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, the new corporation act is very satisfactory so far as the state is concerned and only a few minor amendments will be required to clarify portions of the measure so that they will make the act compare favorably with acts of other states. These amendments will be presented to the present legislature, he said, in the form of amendments to the sections that need revision.

WORK TO PROCEED ON GALVESTON'S SEA WALL
Construction to be Pushed With Redoubled Vigor This Year—Extension to the Sea Wall is Replica of That Completed in 1906.
Galveston, Tex.—Work on the east end extension to Galveston's great sea wall designed to protect this island from gulf storms, will be redoubled with vigor this winter, according to Major L. M.
Adams, U. S. engineer in charge.
But 1,200 feet of the big concrete and steel battlement remain to be constructed. For the completion of this stretch congress has been asked to appropriate $1-500,000. Major Adams hopes to tear away the last form by Aug. 1.
With the building of approximately six and one-half miles of sea wall, two of the trinity of Galveston's great engineering projects will then have been completed. In 1910 after six years' work, the city's grade was raised 12 feet.
The third municipal enterprise under way is the repairing of the two-mile concrete causeway connecting the island with the Texas mainland. A portion of this, battered to debris by the storm of 1915, still is unfinished.
The extension to the sea wall is a replica of that completed in October, 1905, built jointly by the county and federal governments.
The wall is 17 feet above mean low tide and roughly 1.5 feet above the high water mark of 1900. With a base of 16 feet, sloping backward from the gulf to a top width of 5 feet, the wall is reinforced at intervals of ten feet throughout its length with steel rods half an inch in diameter and ten feet long. Huge granite boulders form a rip-rap at its foot.

In the assaults of the 1915 storm, these big rocks, many of them weighing tons, were picked up by the waves and hurled again and again against the sea wall. In spite of this bombardment the damage to the wall was almost negligible, according to engineers.
The second engineering project
—by which this city literally lifted itself by its own boot straps—was that of raising the grade an average of 12 feet. Approximately 20,000,000 cubic yards of sand from the Gulf of Mexico was poured into the city by huge dredges, which brought their cargoes through a channel dug across the island for that purpose.
Houses, business buildings, street car tracks, telephone and telegraph poles were relentlessly wrecked or moved to make way for its waterway. The job of raising Galveston was begun in July, 1904 and completed in July, 1910. It cost citizens of the city and county $2,000,000.
The third of the trinity of projects, the causeway connecting this island with the mainland, received a setback in the battering administered by the tropical hurricane of five years ago. Originally constructed of solid concrete slabs set longitudinally at both ends, with a series of arches in the center, the causeway prior to the storm was considered impregnable. Each end was filled with sand and earth, over which was constructed railway, interurban and vehicular traffic roadways.

The assault of the storm, however, broke through the armor and speedily washed away the sand and earth filling, after which the shell collapsed.

In the re-building of the causeway, the arch type of construction is being followed out exclusively.
Engineers in charge expect to complete the repairs to this structure within twelve months.
